Venerable Edward Morgan School is committed to dealing effectively with complaints. We aim to clarify any issues about which you are not sure. If possible, we will put right any mistakes we have made, and we will apologise. We aim to learn from mistakes and use that experience to improve what we do. We have a zero-tolerance approach to all forms of bullying and harassment and promote respectful relationships between learners, parents, staff, and governors.

This policy explains what parents can do if a query or concern that has been raised with the Headteacher has not been responded to in an appropriate manner.

Our definition of a complaint is 'an expression of dissatisfaction in relation to the school, a member of its staff or the governing body that requires a response from the school.' This complaints procedure supports our commitment and is a way of ensuring that anyone with an interest in the school can raise a concern, with confidence that it will be heard and, if well-founded, addressed in an appropriate and timely fashion.

Nevertheless, as in any organisation, misunderstandings can from time to time arise which may lead to a parent wishing to express some concern. A concern is not a complaint and should not be treated as such by the parent or the school. Only a very small number of concerns raised by parents need to be investigated using the formal procedure. Any concern should always be raised with the Headteacher in the first instance where every effort should be made to resolve the difficulty. When concerns are addressed and resolved there should be no need for a formal complaint. An initial request for action or an enquiry is not a complaint.

When to use this procedure

When you have a concern or make a complaint, we will usually respond in the way we explain below. Sometimes you might be concerned about matters that are not decided by the school, in which case we will tell you who to complain to. At other times you may be concerned about matters that are handled by other procedures, in which case we will explain to you how your concern will be dealt with. If your concern or complaint is about another body as well as the school (for example the local authority) we will work with them to decide how to handle your concern.

Have you asked us yet?

If you are approaching us for the first time you should give us a chance to respond. If you are not happy with our response, then you may make your complaint using the procedure we describe below. Most concerns can be settled quickly just by speaking to the relevant person in school, without the need to use a formal procedure.

What we expect from you

We believe that all complainants have a right to be heard, understood, and respected. School staff and governors have the same right. We expect you to be polite and courteous. We will not tolerate aggressive, abusive, or unreasonable behaviour. Nor will we tolerate unreasonable demands, unreasonable persistence nor vexatious complaining. We have a separate policy to manage situations where we find that someone's actions are unacceptable.

Our approach to answering your concern or complaint

We will consider your concerns and complaints in an open and fair way. At all times, the school will respect the rights and feelings of those involved and make every effort to protect confidential information. Timescales for dealing with your concerns or complaints may need to be extended and we will notify you. We may ask for advice from the local authority or diocesan authority where appropriate. Some types of concern or complaint may raise issues that have to be dealt with in another way (other than this complaints policy), in which case we will explain why, and tell you what steps will be taken. Complaints that are made anonymously will be recorded but investigation will be at the discretion of the school depending on the nature of the complaint.

Answering your concern or complaint

There are up to three Stages: A, B and C. Most complaints can be resolved at Stages A or B. You can bring a relative or companion to support you at any time during the process, but you will be expected to speak for yourself, unless you require special assistance. As far as possible, your concern or complaint will be dealt with on a confidential basis. However, there could be occasions when the person dealing with your concern or complaint will need to consider whether anyone else within the school needs to know about your concern or complaint, so as to address it appropriately.

A number of other procedures already exist. There are special arrangements for dealing with the following matters which must not be dealt with under the complaints procedure.

The existing social arrangements are for dealing with –

- ❖ Complaints about what your child is taught at school (the National Curriculum), the school's charging policy, religious education and collective worship, and the school's provision of information.

(The school's prospectus will give you details of the arrangements. In each case, however, you should first discuss the problem with the Headteacher.)

- ❖ Appeals against decisions about your child's special educational needs.

(A tribunal has been established to deal with complaints of this nature. The school or Local Education Authority will be able to give you details).

- ❖ If you are not offered a place in the school of your choice, or if your child is suspended or excluded from school.

(The school will tell you how to appeal if these situations arise).

Stage A

If you have a concern, you can often resolve it quickly by talking to a teacher or You should raise your concern as soon as you can; normally we would expect you to raise your issue within 10 school days of any incident. The longer you leave it the harder it might be for those involved to deal with it effectively. This will not stop you, at a later date, from raising a complaint if you feel that the issue(s) you have raised have not been dealt with properly. We will try to let you know what we have done or are doing about your concern normally within 10 school days, but if this is not possible, we will talk to you and agree a revised timescale with you. The person overseeing your concern or complaint will keep you informed of the progress being made. This person will also keep a log of the concern for future reference.

Stage B

In most cases, we would expect that your concern is resolved informally. If you feel that your initial concern has not been dealt with appropriately you should put your complaint in writing to the headteacher. We would expect you to aim to do this within five school days of receiving a response to your concern as it is in everyone's interest to resolve a complaint as soon as possible. The form at Appendix A you may find useful. If your complaint is about the headteacher, you should put your complaint in writing to the chair of governors, addressed to the school, to ask for your complaint to be investigated. Timescales for dealing with your complaint will be agreed with you. We will aim to have a meeting with you and to explain what will happen, normally within 10 school days of receiving your letter. The school's designated person will complete the investigation and will let you know the outcome in writing within 10 school days of completion.

Stage C

If you still feel that your complaint has not been dealt with fairly, you should write, through the school's address, to the chair of governors setting out your reasons for asking the governing body's complaints committee to consider your complaint. You do not have to write down details of your whole complaint again. If you need assistance instead of sending a letter or e-mail, you can talk to the chair of governors or who will write down what is discussed and what, in your own words, would resolve the problem and then be asked to sign them as a true record of what was said. We would normally expect you to do this within five school days of receiving the school's response. We will let you know how the complaint will be dealt with and will send a letter to confirm this. The complaints committee will normally have a meeting with you within 15 school days of receiving your letter. The letter will also tell you when all the documentation to be considered by the complaints committee must be received. Everyone involved will see the documentation before the meeting, while ensuring that people's rights to privacy of information are protected. The letter will also record what we have agreed with you about when and where the meeting will take place and what will happen. The timescale may need to be changed, to allow for the availability of people, the gathering of information or seeking advice. In this case, the person dealing with the complaint will agree a new meeting date with you. Normally, in order to deal with the complaint as quickly as possible, the complaints committee will not reschedule the meeting more than once. If you ask to reschedule the meeting more than once, the committee may think it reasonable to make a decision on the complaint in your absence to avoid unnecessary delays. We aim to write to you within 10 school days of the meeting explaining the outcome of the governing body's complaints committee's consideration. The governing body's complaints committee is the final arbiter of complaints.

Special circumstances

Where a complaint is made about any of the following the complaints procedure will be applied differently.

A governor or group of governors:

- The concern or complaint will be referred to the chair of governors for investigation. The chair may alternatively delegate the matter to another governor for investigation. Stage B onwards of the complaints procedure will apply.

The chair of governors or headteacher and chair of governors:

- The vice chair of governors will be informed and will investigate it or may delegate it to another governor. Stage B onwards of the complaints procedure will apply.

Both the chair of governors and vice chair of governors:

- The complaint will be referred to the clerk to the governing body who will inform the chair of the complaints committee. Stage C of the complaints procedure will then apply.

The whole governing body:

- The complaint will be referred to the clerk to the governing body who will inform the headteacher, chair of governors, local authority and, where appropriate, the diocesan authority.
- The authorities will agree arrangements with the governing body for independent investigation and consideration of the complaint.

The headteacher:

- The concern or complaint will be referred to the chair of governors who will undertake the investigation or may delegate it to another governor. Stage B onwards of the complaints procedure will apply.

Our commitment to you

In all cases the school and governing body will ensure that complaints are dealt with in an unbiased, open, and fair way. We will take your concerns and complaints seriously and, where we have made mistakes, will try to learn from them. If you need help to make your concerns known, we will try and assist you.
